Train Traveler Quiz

You're on the train and you have an hour to yourself. What do you do?

- Plug in, log on.
- Enjoy the scenery. It's so nice to be surrounded by nature!
- Flip through a guide to small-town California and try to find something I haven't seen.
- Practice my sales pitch for the next unaware CEO who crosses my path.
- I have four different kinds of pretzels. It's a taste-off!
- Balance my checkbook like a tightrope walker.

*Some restrictions apply.

Lean, Green, not so Mean

Share

You spread sweetness and light while you ride your mountain bike through unexplored lands. You give back to Mother Nature and you're why there's harmony between all living creatures. You take the train because the journey is as important as the destination, and we should all take the least polluting way of travel. Believe, friend.

You have a five-year career plan. Sales quotas are just things to destroy on your way to the top of the corporate ladder. Financial publications ask you for advice. Celebrity entrepreneurs retweet you. You zip from destination to destination, and you can't be bothered with traffic. And... yes, we'd love to buy whatever you're selling.
